

Frederic Dunon has been Chief Operations, Maintenance & Methods Officer of Elia System Operator SA since January 2014.

He began his career at Hewlett Packard, working in the Consulting Department. In 2001, he joined Elia at the Brussels Regional Control Centre. He has been in charge of Program Management for three years and Grid Development for five years. During this period he represented Elia on ENTSO-E's System Development Committee (the European association of transmission system operators). He has been in charge of Grid Operation Management for one year.

Frederic Dunon holds a civil engineering degree from ULB (Université Libre de Bruxelles), a Master's degree from the Solvay Business School and a Master's degree in Energy from the EEI (European Energy Institute).